5 people have recommended Omer

"Under the leadership of Omer in integration team, the job will always complete quickly and efficiently to the pleasure of his superiors, Using traditional and non-traditional methods. After getting to know him you find out that he is a kind person and a devoted team leader."

— Itai Nathaniel, Web R&D, FED, Wibiya, reported to Omer at Wibiya

"Omer is a fully committed employee, he will execute any task thrown his way to the fullest. He is hard working and always up for a challenge. Omer will work in fields which are much more than his job discription and is not affraid to learn new and unfamiliar territories. I have never worked with a person with such high work ethics in any other company. Omer has the ability to look further and see the general good and not only his benefit. During the time we worked together Omer proved that he is the kind of employee any company would be lucky to have."

— Noa Segre, Executive Assistant, inter8ing, worked directly with Omer at inter8ing

"I have worked extensively with Omer in Inter8ing and found him to be an outstanding R&D Manager, both professional and knowledgeable regarding R&D issues as well as a dedicated individual. Omer has the right attitude that every R&D person should adopt, the attitude that nothing is impossible and any task and any deadline can be met with the right dedication motivation and professional knowledge. Omer is also a great colleague one that can give the support and empathy when such is needed and he one of the most dedicated hard working individuals I have met."

— Lior Zadicareo, Managing Partner, StarVision, worked directly with Omer at inter8ing

"Omer is a very dedicated and indipendant system engineer. During the time we worked together and the time I managed him, he showed great dedication to customer satisfaction, hard work, and successful results. He was fun to work with and showed excellent team player capabilities."

— Roi Carmel, IEX Automation Group Leader, NDS, managed Omer at NDS

"Omer is a dedicated and positive worker. It is always a pleasure to work with Omer, because of his "can do" attitude, because of the amazing satisfaction level he gets from all his customers and, not the least, because at the time of need he will always deliver. Omer unites great abilities as a programmer with deep expertise in creating and promoting test automation projects."

— Shalom Mitz, Head of the IEX team, NDS, managed Omer at NDS
